

Peer Mentor: Business School Peer Mentoring Program: Semester 1, 2026 Position Description

The Role

A Peer Mentor is an experienced role model, who welcomes and engages with a diverse group of commencing students (Mentees) to ensure their smooth transition into the Business School and wider university community. Peer Mentors offer their support to Mentees by providing them with social opportunities to make friends and tips on navigating the social, academic, geographical and administrative aspects of university life.

The Business School Peer Mentoring program upholds a strong reputation and firmly believes that Peer Mentors play an integral role in the successful delivery of the Peer Mentoring Program and commencing students' experience within the Business School.

Peer Mentors direct a friendly and enthusiastic environment to inspire Mentees to engage within their Mentor group and the wider university community. In Semester 1, 2026 the Business Peer Mentoring program has 2 major components:

- Welcome Week
 - Definition: Welcome Week is a comprehensive orientation program including a variety of events and activities aimed to help new and returning students transition smoothly into university life.
 - Timeframe: Week 0 (Monday 16 – Friday 20 February 2026)
- Mentoring Relationship
 - Definition: Each new business student in Semester 1, 2026 will be assigned a Peer Mentor. Each Peer Mentor will be assigned and guided by the Lead Mentor.
 - Timeframe: Weeks 1 – 6 (Monday 23 February – Friday 3 April 2026)

Required Skills and Personal Attributes

Required Skills	• Effective verbal and written communication • Strong relationship management • Effective teamwork • Ability to facilitate and present to groups • Exceptional self-management • Ability to take initiative • Cultural Awareness • Uphold confidentiality
Personal Attributes	• Reliable, punctual and deadline driven • Accountable • Adaptable • Solution orientated • Passion for creating an energetic, enthusiastic and vibrant environment

Responsibilities

Peer Mentors are required to:

- Represent the Business School Peer Mentoring program at official Business School events.
- Facilitate and lead individual and/or group discussions between students.
- Provide support and engage with Mentees across the duration of the program, both face-to-face and online.
- Conduct university campus tours during a Welcome Session.
- Attend, assist and actively participate during Welcome Week including leading a mentee group during a Welcome Session.
- Relay important information and student life opportunities to mentees.
- Refer Mentees to appropriate University of Sydney support services and facilities as necessary.
- Provide feedback about the program and other university services as required.
- Be a positive role model at all times.

Peer Mentors do not provide counselling, give academic or financial advice.

Commitment

Peer Mentors commit for half a semester (Week -1 to Week 6 inclusive).

Peer Mentor activities throughout the semester include the following:

- Face-to-Face contact on campus - Welcome Week and Mentee group meetings.
- Online Communication – Mentee community engagement.
- Administration – Reporting progress, issues or concerns to Business Student Life team.

Peer Mentors are required to complete all essential program requirements as outlined below. If at any time a Peer Mentor is found not be meeting these commitments, the Business School Student Life team staff may offer alternatives for completing hours equivalent (where possible) to the time missed, or the Peer Mentor may be removed from the program if in the best interest for the Mentor and/or their Mentees.

Program Requirements

To complete the program requirements and receive a Business School Peering Mentoring Peer Mentor Certificate at the end of your role in Semester 1, 2026 you must attend and actively participate in the compulsory training days, events and activities as outlined below:

Program Requirement: Training

Training	Date	Time	Requirement
Online Training Module	Complete an online training module. Due Sunday 8 February 2026	Approx. 1 hour	Compulsory
Mentor Symposium	Attend a training session with your fellow mentors. Date TBC (Usually held in Week -1 prior to Welcome Week)	TBC	Compulsory

Program Requirement: Events and Activities

Event/Activity	Date and Time	Requirement
Welcome Week Welcome Session	Attend your allocated Business School Welcome Session during Welcome Week (Week 0: Monday 16 – Friday 20 February 2026). You will be required to participate for approximately 4 hours during which you will meet and engage with your mentees. - Undergraduate Welcome Session (Undergraduate Mentors Only) – Date TBC - Postgraduate Welcome Session (Postgraduate Mentors Only) – Date TBC	Compulsory
Faculty Welcome Campus Tour	Peer Mentors are required to take their Mentees on a campus tour during the Welcome Day.	Compulsory
Mentee engagement and monitoring	Peer Mentors are allocated a group of Mentees (commencing students) to engage with and support for the duration of the peer mentoring program. Ongoing (Weeks 0 - 6: Monday 16 February – Friday 3 April 2026)	Compulsory
Lead Mentor engagement	Each Peer Mentor will be paired with a Lead Mentor. Peer Mentors are expected to communicate with Lead Mentors throughout the duration of the peer mentoring program.	Compulsory
Online Program Evaluations	Provide feedback on your experience in the program via an online survey. There are three surveys (post-welcome week, mid-program and end-of-program). Due dates: Post-Welcome Week: Week 0 (Sunday 22 February 2026) Mid-program: Week 3 (Sunday 15 March 2026) End-of-program: Sunday of Week 7 (Date TBC)	Compulsory
Mentor Recognition Event	Wednesday of Week 8 (Date TBC); 4pm – 6pm	Compulsory

Please note: Times of events are correct as of Thursday 21 August 2025 but are subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances (operational issues, wet weather, etc.). The Student Life team will communicate all changes with at least 24 hours' notice (where possible) via email.

Throughout Semester 1, 2026 you may also be asked to represent the student voice by providing feedback (online and/or face-to-face) for other initiatives and programs at the University of Sydney. This is not compulsory.

Support

The Business School Student Life team will provide comprehensive training and guidance to help you be successful in your volunteer role. If you have any urgent questions or concerns, please contact the Business Student Life team via email (business.mentoring@sydney.edu.au).